Helping at Riding Club Events – in order for the club to run there is an expectation that members will help with at least one event during the club year. Points are gained for helping and a cup is presented at the AGM for the member who has helped the most over the year.

To thank you for your help we are now offering vouchers:- which are to the value of £5 for a half day help, £10 for a day. These can be redeemed at any member’s event. Please tick which type of event you would prefer to help at and you will be contacted when we have to provide helpers.
